

Table of Contents

Foreword .....	4
Highlighted Support for Early Childhood Investments .....	7
Summary of Philanthropic Opportunities.....	8
Part I: What does the research tell us about the importance of early childhood development? What do we know about what works? .....	10
Part II: What outcomes matter most for very young children? .....	15
Part III: What are the immediate barriers to achieving better outcomes for low-income children? .....	21
Part IV: What are the most effective investments philanthropy can make? .....	30
Strengthen public systems of early care and education at state and local levels to ensure continuous quality improvements.....	30
Scale health and developmental screenings to connect parents and families with resources to optimize their children’s holistic development.....	32
Improve the training, continuing education, professional development, and compensation of early childhood educators.....	36
Support greater access to high-quality evidence-based programs that help parents and families to foster their children’s development.....	39
Promote ongoing program innovation and improvement, especially for those programs supporting parents and informal caregivers.....	44
Postscript.....	46
Acknowledgments.....	47
Additional Commentary.....	48
Appendix A: List of Interviewees.....	50
Appendix B: Sources.....	52
Appendix C: ECLS-B Technical Appendix.....	60