Introduction

Entering 2003, MY TURN, Inc. was a small youth development organization ($1.5M in revenue) with a solid set of programs and a strong track record of results. Although the organization had expanded modestly over its first twenty years, it remained heavily concentrated in and around its original location.

MY TURN’s management and Board were ready to accelerate growth. Encouraged by the impact their current operations were having, they wanted to serve more kids. While this growth imperative was clear, the details remained nebulous: How should they grow? To which communities? With which set of programs? What changes would they have to make to their current organization to support this growth? How much funding did they need and where would it come from?

To answer these and other questions necessary to inform their growth plan, MY TURN’s management and Board embarked on an intensive four-month strategic planning process with assistance from the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation and the Bridgespan Group. This business plan is a product of that process.

Executive summary

- Over 20 years, MY TURN has grown into one of the leading providers of vocational and educational services in small, urban communities in south-eastern Massachusetts

- Currently, MY TURN serves over 1,800 youth in 9 communities. Yet, there are over 60,000 youth in Massachusetts alone who are in need of the services MY TURN provides, because they are either high-school dropouts, unemployed, or both

- To better meet this demand, MY TURN has completed an intensive four-month strategic planning process with assistance from the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation and the Bridgespan Group

- As a result of this process, MY TURN now has:
  - A short, medium and long-term vision for the organization
  - A clear articulation of MY TURN’s Theory of Change
  - A 3-year regional growth plan centered on core programs
  - A streamlined set of metrics to track progress
  - A plan for a systematic, longitudinal evaluation

- MY TURN’s goal is to expand throughout New England and, eventually, to franchise the model to other locations outside this region

- Serving ISY in Attleboro and Fall River
- Serving ISY in Quincy and Plymouth
- Serving ISY in Bourne

MY TURN has served 16,000 youth since its inception
MY TURN has a strong track record for helping high-school dropouts and unemployed youth make successful transitions to adulthood

- In 1997 MY TURN worked with Bridgewater State College to conduct a study of its School-to-Work outcomes

- According to the study, MY TURN participants outperformed a control group that possessed similar skills and work history
  - 71% of MY TURN participants retained their first job following graduation for more than 6 months, compared to 32% of the control group
    - Of that 71%, 60% held the job for at least 12 months
  - 87% of the MY TURN participants were employed at the time of follow-up, against only 42% of the control group
A large need exists for MY TURN’s services, as WIA contractors serve only a small percentage of MA unemployed and dropout youth

Total MA Youth (2003)

- Unemployed ages 16-24: 53.6K
- Dropouts ages 16-19: 22.0K

Percent served by WIA contractors:
- Unemployed ages 16-24: 10%
- Dropouts ages 16-19: 24%

Note: Youth served by other WIA contractors calculated by dividing WIA dollars available (minus those allocated to MY TURN) by two times MY TURN’s cost per participant

A 15-year vision for MY TURN

MY TURN fills in existing region and enters 1-2 new clusters

MY TURN begins expansion into full regional coverage

MY TURN continues expansion throughout New England

MY TURN model is franchised to other regions

MY TURN’s vision in more detail

Short term (next 3 years)
- Size: MY TURN serves 1,000 – 3,000 youth in 1-3 states and 15-20 communities
  - At least 2 communities have multiple programs, with a strong presence in Brockton
- Organization: All sites are wholly-owned
  - Model and approach are codified/systematized
  - Performance metrics and IT systems are in place
  - Board members and staff are added/reorganized
  - Funding is increasingly diversified
  - Advocacy coalition is assembled in MA
  - A longitudinal study is designed and launched

Medium term (3-7 years)
- Size: MY TURN serves 2,000-5,000 youth across multiple states and communities
- Organization: Mix of wholly-owned and “franchised” sites
  - Program model effectiveness is proven
  - Organizational capacity improved
  - Recasting of Board complete
  - Funding draws on sustainable sources of public and private money
  - MY TURN wields influence over local/state funding and programs for youth

Longer term (7-15 years)
- Size: MY TURN serves thousands of youth across many states, engaging in local and national advocacy work on behalf of those youth
  - MY TURN model is copied by other organizations, and is embraced in state or national public policy arena
To help achieve this vision, MY TURN screened for potential expansion locations in MA, RI, and NH

- Two primary considerations informed MY TURN’s expansion plan:
  - Which communities need MY TURN most?
  - Which most resemble communities where MY TURN has already been successful?

- MY TURN also wanted a sensible geographic expansion, taking advantage of the existing base in MA and extending to neighbor states RI and NH

- The following demographics were used to screen all communities in MA, RI and NH:
  - Population (20-300K)
  - Number of individuals in MY TURN age group (15-19 and 20-24)
  - Urban (% of residents living in an urban area of the community)
  - Availability of public transportation (% of workers who commute by bus/trolley/streetcar)
  - Dropouts (% of ages 16-19 who have left school without graduating)
  - Youth unemployment (% of unemployed ages 16-19 and 20-24)
  - Education level of the community (% of ages 25+ not high school graduates)
  - Poverty (% of families with children under 18 below the poverty level)

- The resulting list of communities were ranked individually and also organized by geographic clusters

- This quantitative analysis was followed by qualitative examination of other factors critical to MY TURN’s success in a new community
MY TURN prioritized sites for expansion based on the following criteria

- Above threshold demographically (e.g., size, number of school dropouts, access to public transportation)
- Geographic proximity to current or planned MY TURN sites, and density within a cluster
- Fit with longer-term vision (e.g., presence in new states, presence in Brockton)
- Availability of funding (e.g., WIA or other location-specific funding)
- Level of interest in/demand for MY TURN (e.g., underperforming WIBs, lack of good providers)
- Presence of partners (e.g., career centers, educational and employment outlets, day care)

Strategy and Opportunity
- High-priority areas
- Next-best areas
- Do not pursue areas
Five geographic clusters emerged

- Central MA
- NH Border
- N/NW of Boston
- Hampden

RI and NH Border clusters appeared most promising given availability of funding and community need

MY TURN will conduct more in-depth due diligence of priority expansion candidates

Demographics and mapping
- Appropriate demographic data
- Fit with geographic cluster strategy

Funding available
- WIA youth funding
- Private giving in the area

WIB due diligence
- Priorities/strategy/values fit
- Satisfaction with current providers
- Receptivity to provider with origins elsewhere
- Timing of RFPs
- Underserved communities where proposals may be especially welcome
- Whether or not to pursue proposals for multiple communities

Community resources
- 1\textsuperscript{st} tier: Critical
  - Convenient public transportation
  - Sufficient entry-level jobs
  - Career center or other partner with space available, preferably separate youth area

- 2\textsuperscript{nd} tier: High priority for OSY
  - Daycare (sliding scale)
  - GED (20 hrs/wk)

- 3\textsuperscript{rd} tier: Have some, not necessarily all
  - Recruiting partners (teachers, CBOs, DSS/DYS, police/probation, Career Center)
  - High school staff willing to partner
  - Voc. training (e.g., CNA, computer)
  - Medical/mental health/counseling/women’s center
  - Shelters for youth
  - Section 8 rent subsidies and/or public housing
MY TURN will focus on expanding its core programs

• Expansion plans are concentrated on “core” business
  - Youth in core OSY and ISY programs receive the full, in-depth MY TURN case management service
  - In addition to core youth, MY TURN currently works with 710 non-core youth at SET and RISE, providing them with a subset of MY TURN’s case management services
  - The core model is more mature and more likely to demonstrate strong results

• Within the core business, OSY growth will be prioritized over ISY growth
  - A large need for OSY services exists and few organizations are serving this need
  - There is likely to be more WIA funding for OSY services
  - ISY expansion will occur when community need and funding opportunities coincide, and will be less aggressive than OSY expansion

• Although Brockton-based RISE services do not fit the core model, MY TURN needs to have a strong presence in Brockton; accordingly, two core OSY case managers will be added to Brockton
MY TURN is planning a rapid but controlled expansion

Financial implications and fundraising plan

Summary of financial plans

- MY TURN has recently run very thin with respect to management staff and caseload per case manager
  - From FY ‘01-FY ‘04, MY TURN’s budget decreased by $200K, while the number of students served increased by almost 300

- MY TURN must invest disproportionately in management and infrastructure as well as reduce overly large case manager caseloads to build an organization capable of supporting growth
  - As a result, while students served will double by FY ‘07, the budget will triple
  - New infrastructure includes IT spending, rent, and additional management staff

- MY TURN must also enhance its existing program model, adding:
  - Job development services to enable youth to find career-building jobs
  - In-house GED instruction to ensure access to all youth who need it

- Based on these changes, MY TURN’s cost/youth will increase from $1,060 to $1,598 – still well below comparable services
  - Providers of like services in RI average $7,700 per youth
  - MY TURN still spends over 80% of costs as program costs
MY TURN is planning to more than double its budget by FY ’07

MY TURN operating budget

Cash reserve expense: $0.2M $0.2M $0.3M

Note: Operating budget does not include cash reserve needs; “non-core” includes expenses associated with RISE and SET
The vast majority of costs are program-related

Cost per youth (core program)

- FY '04: $1,060
- FY '07: $1,598

MY TURN compares favorably to estimated $7700 average cost per youth for providers in RI

Note: Cost per youth for core program; assumes all existing sites employ a job developer and offer GED services, but that new sites do not; “direct program costs” include on-site costs (e.g., case managers, job developers) as well as management attention to programming, based on current or projected time allocation; additional management activity and non-program overhead are included in “management and overhead”
To ensure quality growth, MY TURN plans to conduct a rigorous evaluation study

- Evaluation will include all three programs, for all sites in operation for over a year
  - Out of School Youth: High school re-enrollment; diploma attainment; GED attainment; skill attainment; job attainment; 6- and 12-month job retention; wage growth
  - School-to-Work: Skill attainment; job attainment; job retention; wage growth
  - Connecting to College: Effect on course load; college acceptance; college retention (i.e., 1-year and graduation)

- For job programs, enhanced model (e.g., including job developers and in-house GED) to be tested

- This evaluation study will span several years
  - External evaluator on board by Fall ’04
  - Enrollment begins Spring ’05 and evaluation in Fall ’05; MY TURN program compared against control group
  - Some data expected after two years (e.g., intermediate outcomes), with some pieces (e.g., longer-term outcomes, such as college graduation) requiring four years to collect
The growth plan requires MY TURN to raise $3.1M from private and non-WIA sources.

Projected costs and revenues by FY '07

Note: Expected revenue includes existing revenue plus expected WIA dollars or other future contracts.
Alternate scenarios will provide a roadmap if future circumstances vary from plan

Strategic fundraising plan

In order to raise the necessary non-WIA dollars, MY TURN needs to:

- Strengthen grant and request-for-proposal writing capabilities for foundations and government sources
- Build in capacity to attract individual dollars
- Build in capacity to attract corporate dollars
There are five priority sources of potential public dollars for MY TURN, outside of WIA

A vision of MY TURN in 2007

- 23 years of experience helping youth prepare for the future
- 22,500 youth served since 1984
- 2,400 youth working with MY TURN annually
- 56 employees working in 15 communities in MA, RI and NH
Update: As of early July 2004 (the beginning of FY 2005), MY TURN was already making strong progress against this business plan

- NH border sites secured: Selected as the in-school WIA provider for school-to-career services in Manchester and Nashua; recruited 90 students

- Key new positions filled: Hired two job developers; filled VP of Programs and VP of Operations positions internally

- Board development initiated: Hired a board consultant; conducted a board self-assessment; began mapping out new board roles, job descriptions, and recruitment plans

- Evaluation study put in motion: Received proposals from evaluation experts to conduct the longitudinal evaluation study
