

Table of Contents

Executive Summary	5
Key findings	6
Recommendations	7
Moving forward	8
Introduction	9
A marketplace focused on learning and continuous improvement	9
Methodology	11
Defining a common language	11
Key Finding #1—Supply: A Long Supply Chain	13
Many steps	13
Many players	13
Many clearinghouses	17
Key Finding #2—Demand: A Diverse Group of Users and Needs	20
Several different types of users	20
A variety of needs for different users, but some key consistencies	21
Key Finding #3—Market Gaps: A Market with Growing Pains	22
A growing market heading in the right direction	22
Six gaps that remain in the market	23
Gap 1: Comprehensiveness	23
Gap 2: Implementation	25
Gap 3: Guidance	28
Gap 4: Synthesis	31
Gap 5: Usability	33
Gap 6: Awareness	35

Recommendations: Opportunities to Strengthen the Market .....	37
Strengthen supply.....	37
1. Increase the number of studies on interventions available .....	37
2. Increase the amount of information on interventions available .....	39
3. Increase the types of reviews available, not only reviews of single interventions.....	39
Build demand.....	40
1. Increase awareness of sources for evidence on effectiveness, particularly through existing networks .....	40
2. Reduce barriers to use of clearinghouses .....	42
3. Guide decision makers through the selection process .....	42
Develop infrastructure.....	43
1. Establish common standards.....	43
2. Increase coordination among suppliers .....	44
3. Build a vibrant adviser market.....	44
Conclusion .....	46
Acknowledgments .....	48
Appendices .....	49
Appendix 1: List of organizations interviewed.....	49
Appendix 2: Current efforts to develop and inform a common evidence framework.....	50
Appendix 3: Landscape of clearinghouses.....	51
Appendix 4: Web analytics for information sources.....	56
Appendix 5: US-focused clearinghouses by domain.....	59
Appendix 6: Comprehensiveness of clearinghouses.....	62
Appendix 7: Intervention-specific information captured systematically on clearinghouses.....	64